Subject: Application for the position of “ Laboratory technician Maternity cover”

Dear, sir/Madam

It is with great interest that I am applying for the position of laboratory technician maternity cover. When I read the job description of your advertising from the ethiojobs, I feel my educational background, training & professional background makes me well suited for the demands of this position. I have a master degree in medical microbiology graduated from Hawassa University in regular program, BSc degree in medical laboratory technology graduated from Hawassa University, diploma in medical laboratory graduated from Nekemite Health Science College & certificate in medical laboratory graduated from Bahirdar health science college,

Moreover I have a strong interest in the area of public health to improve the quality of health care in the community & participate in research activities.

I believe that I am the ideal candidate for the position due to more than 20 years of extensive work experience in different area like Yabello Hospital, Yabello catholic mission clinic (NGO) as a laboratory technician, also worked at Hawassa health Science College as demonstrating laboratory skill for laboratory students & as a lecturer of different laboratory courses. Currently I am working as expert microbiologist in SNNPR regional health bureau at public health institute laboratory since 2012 EC.

Regarding my job experience, I have a certificate on Laboratory quality management system, Internal audit, statistical method validation, safety measures, quantitative & qualitative data collection of ART adherence to care lost to follow up & tracing mechanisms organized by SNNPR RHB on depth interview, FGD & key informants interview, integrated supportive supervision organized by SNNPR RHB. Also participated on effective teaching skill, sentinel surveillance, VCT, Reproductive health, Infection prevention, laboratory diagnosis of HIV, TB, Malaria, CD4 & computer training.

I have excellent interpersonal skills, the ability to work in harmony with colleagues & able to adapt hardship work environment in order to accomplish the duties and responsibilities. If I get the opportunity to serve in your esteemed organization, I assure you to perform my best services & contribution to the success of your objectives.

May you will need to contact me & setup an interview. You can reach by way of e-mail or by way of mobile phone at your earliest convenience.

I will wait a positive response in the near future. Thanks for your time & consideration.

Yours faithfully
